

Setting Up a County-Based Restorative Justice System and Victim Offender Conferencing

Featuring: Fred Van Liew

Restorative Practices Coordinator for the Portland Center for Restorative Justice and former prosecuting attorney from Des Moines, Iowa

Thursday, October 29th, 7:00-8:30 pm
Auditorium B, Angell Hall, 505 S. State Street,
University of Michigan, 48109
(enter through diag entrance, east side)

Reform our criminal justice system to one where victims have a voice, and offenders learn from their mistakes

Sponsored by: Healing Communities, The U of M School of Social Work, the Interfaith Council for Peace and Justice, Friends of Restorative Justice of Washtenaw County, Juvenile Justice Clinic at the University of Michigan Law School, Students Organized Against Prisons, The Episcopal Church of the Incarnation, St. Mary's Church in Chelsea, Church of the Good Shepherd UCC, St. Francis of Assisi Church, Challenging Racism and Social Justice Council of the First Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Ann Arbor